FEATURED THIS MONTH...

Advent

The season of Advent is a time of anticipation that directs our hearts and minds to preparing for the celebration of the Lord's birth on Christmas and for Christ's second coming at the end of time. During this time of preparation and expectant waiting, we also remember expectant mothers who are preparing for the birth of their children. This Advent season, consider highlighting the article "10 Ways to Support Her When She's Unexpectedly Expecting." (It is available in a variety of formats at the bottom of this webpage.)

Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary Patronal feast day of the United States of America (December 8, 2023)

On December 8, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin. (This feast is a holy day of obligation for dioceses in the United States.) On this feast, we celebrate Mary's conception free from the stain of Original Sin, and we recognize that Mary's life began the moment she was conceived in the womb of St. Anne. So, too, does every human life begin at the moment of fertilization, when it is lovingly knit together by God the Father.

The Immaculate Conception is sometimes confused with the Annunciation. This bulletin insert can be used to help differentiate these two important celebrations. On this solemnity, consider praying Pope Francis' Prayer for the Immaculate Conception: "We are in need of your immaculate gaze, to rediscover the ability to look upon persons and things with respect and awareness."

Intercessions for Life

December 3rd

For all the faithful:
May the Lord help us build a culture of life
in vigilant expectation of his return;
We pray to the Lord:

First Sunday of Advent

December 8th

For women who are unexpectedly pregnant:
May they be filled with trust in God's providence
and lovingly welcome the gift of their child;
We pray to the Lord:

Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

December 10th

May God help us prepare the way of the Lord
by acting with tenderness and compassion,
especially toward the most vulnerable among us;
We pray to the Lord:

Second Sunday of Advent

December 17th

For all victims of human trafficking:
May they find hope and healing
in the Lord who proclaims liberty to captives
and release to prisoners;
We pray to the Lord:

Third Sunday of Advent

December 24th

Inspired by the example of the Blessed Mother,
may we, like Mary, have the courage to say "yes" to God's gift of human life;
We pray to the Lord:

Fourth Sunday of Advent

December 25th

For all Christians:
May the birth of Our Lord Jesus Christ awaken in our hearts wonder at the precious gift of every child;
We pray to the Lord:

The Nativity of the Lord (Christmas)

December 31st

For all families:
As the domestic Church,
may they pursue holiness,
pass on the faith, and persevere in love;
We pray to the Lord:

Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Bulletin Quotes

December 3rd

“The Gospel of Life recognizes the full range of threats against human life, from poverty and malnutrition to murder and war. Particular emphasis, however, is placed on threats to life at its beginning and end—precisely when it is most in need of protection. In modern times, children in their mothers’ wombs and those approaching the end of their lives are certainly among the ‘least of these’ in our world’s estimation.”

“O Blessed Mother, at the angel’s word you went in haste to the aid of your cousin Elizabeth. Although pregnant yourself, you placed her needs before your own. By your example of radical solidarity, teach us to reverence and protect those in need, without conditions or expectations... Obtain for us the grace to bring Christ to any expectant mother who is alone and afraid.”
