The Angelico Project Presents a Summer Concert: The Hillbilly Thomists with Easter Rising at St. Gertrude July 31, 2022 from 2:00-4:00.

What happens when you give a friar a fiddle? You wind up with The Hillbilly Thomists! From the Dominican House of Studies to #3 on the bluegrass Billboard charts, these white-robed priests are spreading the Gospel in an exciting convergence of Catholicism and American folk culture that the whole family can enjoy.

These bluegrass-playing Dominicans have been featured on EWTN, National Catholic Register, Aleteia, Bluegrass Today, First Things, The American Conservative, and many other publications for one simple reason: They're amazing! From classic tunes such as "Just as I Am" to originals like "Bourbon, Bluegrass, and the Bible," The Hillbilly Thomists are a one-of-a-kind musical experience you won't want to miss!

So are you ready? Join us on Sunday, July 31 at 2pm in St. Gertrude Parish Center. The popular local Irish folk band Easter Rising will open the concert and take the stage again at the end to play with The Hillbilly Thomists. Invite your family, friends, and anyone who loves bluegrass, Americana, or music of any kind. You could do worse as an eye-catching means of evangelization than bluegrass-playing Dominicans!

July 31st is an afternoon of truth, goodness, beauty, and bluegrass. Who could say no to that? But seats are limited, and you don't want to miss this chance. Grab your tickets* to see The Hillbilly Thomists today!
