QUOTE THE WEEK

"Every piece of my flesh, every drop of my blood will tell you that I am a Christian." St. Augustine Zhao

SAINTS OF THE WEEK – July 5th

St. Anthony Zaccaria was born sometime in the year 1502 in Rome to noble parents Lazzaro and Antonia Pezcaroli Zaccaria. His father died when he was two years old. His mother took great care in teaching him compassion and to care for the poor. This likely played a part in his desire to become a physician. When older, he studied philosophy at the University of Pavia and medicine at the University of Padua. In 1524, he began practicing medicine in Cremona. But after 3 years, he felt a longing for the priesthood and was ordained in 1529. Soon after, he became the spiritual advisor to the Countess Ludovica Torelli. In 1530, he followed her to Milan, where over the next ten years, he played a role in the founding of three religious orders; Barnabites, Angelic Sisters of St. Paul and the Laity of St. Paul. While in Vincenza, he is credited with popularizing for the laity the forty-hours devotion - the solemn exposition of the Blessed Sacrament for the adoration of the faithful - accompanied by preaching. He also revived the custom of ringing church bells at 3 p.m. on Fridays, in remembrance of the crucifixion. Anthony, while on a mission in Guastalla, Italy, contracted a fever. This in addition to the strict penances he voluntarily inflicted on his body was enough to result in his death on July 5, 1539 at the age of 36 years old. Bishop Luca di Seriate who ordained him a priest presided at his funeral. Pope Leo XIII canonized him on May 27, 1897.

Patron of physicians, Clerics Regular of St. Paul (Barnabites) Order of Angelic Sisters of St. Paul and the Laity of St. Paul.

Virtus® Covered Ministers – Don't Panic

The new diocesan policies for background checks for the Virtus system that are performed on those of us who serve as ministers at our parish have raised the cost of this service. We are in the process of establishing a way to purchase tokens to pay for these necessary searches. Check your Virtus dashboard at Current Training to open and finish the Plan to Protect God's Children 4.0 and Training Bulletins for any outstanding monthly bulletins. We will work to supply you with a token number that will pay for the required background search that many of us will be required to supply identification information. You can see if a background check is required for you on the dashboard under the Background Check.

Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Supreme Court's decision in Dobbs, that there is no constitutional or human right to artificially abort an unborn child, is an achievement for our nation. I add my voice to so many who are grateful to God this day. I am also grateful to all who worked so diligently toward this goal. I invite the Faithful and our Pro-Life allies to gather at the Cathedral Basilica of the Assumption on Friday, July 22 at noon for a Mass of Thanksgiving.

Today, we must remember that the Pro-Life movement and the witness of the Church remain engaged in a still more challenging task — the fostering of a Culture of Life. This will best be accomplished through the establishment of meaningful and caring relationships — sometimes long-term — that provide for the needs of expectant mothers, fathers, and their children. Where the emotional, financial, and relational resources that a family might provide are absent, let us become supportive family to our neighbor. This is the witness, the laying down of life, that the Holy Spirit can use to foster conversion of heart.

Many of us have experienced a time in life when we were faced with the unexpected and could not see the next step let alone a path forward. Often it was the care, concern, and encouragement of another that moved us along. We have recently witnessed this kind of thoughtful care for the dignity of others in the many charitable responses to the invasion of Ukraine and the resulting refugee crisis. In one border town in Poland, those who thought about the hardships of women arriving with children in arms placed strollers on the train platform to ease their journey. Other families have invited Ukrainians, sometimes perfect strangers, into their homes for extended, even indefinite stays. When asked for an explanation, the mother in one host family simply said, "We just knew it was the right thing to do."

Sometimes, pregnancy is that unexpected time for a woman. What for others is a time of joy, for her becomes a time of distress where she may not see the path forward for her or her baby. I invite every parish, Respect Life Committee, Pastoral Council, Pastor, and Deanery Pastoral Council to explore ways that we might extend the love of family to help our neighbors choose life. I recommend for your consideration Walking with Moms in Need, an initiative of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, that is based on this kind of relational intervention and mentoring in the lives of young mothers. Information is available from the Diocesan Pro-Life Office. I welcome your ideas about how the diocese might assist in creative, pro-life ministry.

Of course, some needs require resources that only the larger community or state can provide. The Catholic Conference of Kentucky will continue to urge our lawmakers to enact laws that protect the dignity of human life — born and unborn. Please lend your voice to support policies that respect life from conception to natural death.

Finally, if you are a young woman who is considering abortion because of a lack of relational or financial support, please turn to us. The Catholic Church and the Diocese of Covington want to protect and foster both your life and your child's life. We know a path forward. We will walk with you.

Gratefully,

+
Most Reverend John C. Iffert
Bishop of Covington
