QUOTE THE WEEK

"For as you know, the things of God must always meet with opposition, especially when they meet with earthly plans."

St. Catherine del Ricci

SAINT OF THE WEEK – February 15th

St. Claude la Colombière was born in 1641 in the city of Saint-Symphorien-d'Ozon, then in the ancient Province of Dauphiné (France). He was the third child of Bertrand la Colombière and of Margaret Coindat. The family soon moved to the nearby city of Vienne, where he began his education, before attending the Jesuit school in Lyon for his secondary studies. In 1658, at age seventeen Claude entered the Jesuit noviciate at Avignon. After ordination, he spent several years teaching grammar and literature there. After fifteen years as a proclaimed preacher of his order's Spiritual Exercises, in 1675 he was assigned as the spiritual director for the Visitation Sisters at Paray-le-Monial. This assignment seemed to be beneath a cleric of his experience – but it turned out to be anything but ordinary or mundane. There, he met St. Margaret Mary Alacoque. Sr. Margaret Mary was at a low place in her spirituality and self esteem having had a number of personal revelations with Jesus that her community did not believe or support. Fr. Claude supported her and she confided openly about what Jesus was instructing her to do. He ardently convinced her community at the convent to listen and act on what Sr. Margaret Mary was requested to do through her revelations with Jesus. Fr. Claude himself became totally engrossed as a supporter of the Sacred Heart of Jesus movement. The last several years of his life, he moved to England as the spiritual aid to the Duchess of York and future King James II. He was arrested there and imprisoned as being part of the Popish Plot. He was expelled from England with the help from King Louis XIV and died at Paray-le-Monial on February 15, 1682 due to severe hemorrhage. Patron for the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

What's on Your Heart?

This Lent, Sts. Boniface & James Parish will be conducting a parish survey on discipleship called the Disciple Maker Index (DMI), and we need to hear from you! As part of the diocesan With One Heart initiative, the survey will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and on our parish's efforts to help you become the best disciple you can be. The information gathered will be used to plan for the future so we can become a more faith-filled, vibrant community. The greater the participation, the more reliable the information will be for effective decision-making. The DMI will be accessible online from February 22 through March 27 and will take 10-15 minutes to complete (paper surveys will be available for those who need them). All responses will be confidential; the parish will only receive information about the community as a whole. Results will be shared with the parish in late spring/early summer. In the coming weeks, check the bulletin, the parish website and and listen for pulpit announcements for more information, including how to access the survey online or complete a paper survey. Tell us what's on your heart! Take the Disciple Maker Index this Lent!

The National Catholic Youth Conference

We are happy to announce that registration for the 2023 NCYC "Fully Alive" conference on Nov. 16-18, 2023, at the Indiana Convention Center in Indianapolis is now available. Please register at <https://forms.gle/Amp6HtRAJ9SaBJNPA>. Registration is required to save your spot at NCYC 2023. NCYC 2023 Registration Summary: All attendees need to register through the Google form to save their spot for NCYC 2023. Group Leaders can register their students (attendees), or they can share the registration link with them. Group Leaders need to collect and send a payment listing how many tickets they want to purchase from the Diocese. Ticket purchases need to be made according to the four registration options; Early Bird, Regular, Late, and Late, Late Registration. The Diocese of Covington will purchase tickets from NCYC on behalf of the School or Parish. This ensures the member rate. Tickets will be initially assigned to a School or a Parish and not an individual. After the September 1, 2023, registration deadline, the completed spreadsheet, listing attendees by name, school, or parish, can be shared with NCYC/NFCYM. Diocesan & NCYC Consent and liability forms will need to be emailed to all registered attendees.
